

*The 3rd Annual Dartmouth Comic Arts Festival
will be held at Alderney Landing on the Dartmouth Waterfront on Sunday, August 17th, 2014*

APPLY NOW FOR DCAF 2014

The application period for DCAF 2014 is now open. Please submit your application by April 30, 2014. Applicants will be contacted on or by May 15th as to whether or not they are accepted to the festival.

- Please note that filling out an application does not guarantee table space at DCAF 2014.
- Because of the high volume of submissions we have historically received, preference will be given to vendors and exhibitors who are displaying/selling/making comics and cartoon art. Also please note that DCAF is an all-ages, family-friendly show.
- We'll be contacting everyone on or by May 15th to let them know if their registration and table space requests have been accepted.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact calum@strangeadventures.com

Last year's event saw more than two thousand people of all ages enjoying the one-day festival of cartooning and comics. Again this year, there is no admission charge to ensure the largest possible audience.

Table size is roughly 8 ft. X 2.5 ft. Tables and chairs are provided, you may wish to bring your own table covering. Tables are $65 each or $40 for a half-table. Set up starts at 9AM on Sunday, August 18th at Alderney Landing. Please specify if you want a full or half table.

Thank you for your kind attention,

Calum Johnston, DCAF organizer
